President's Corner

Welcome again to our Friends Newsletter, this being our second issue. You will see notes on upcoming events and a follow-up story on our Jewelry Sale held last October. Please note our 2-for-1 book sale to be held February 19th and our upcoming annual meeting Thursday, April 14th at 1:00 in the Township Building Community Room. Our budget has grown to over $20,000 in support of our Library this year. The Board of the Friends of UDPL thanks you for helping us provide that necessary support. Please continue to visit our book sale area and use all of the fine facilities of our Library. I wish you all a Happy New Year and lots of good reading.

Received a call from Renee Fishman who reported that she had given the pin to Julianna Margulies who was delighted to receive it and very appreciative. She also seemed to genuinely like it. Look for Renee in an upcoming episode of "The Good Wife" titled "Great Viral."

Jewelry Sale Glitters Gold!

The photos below are from our fabulous Jewelry Sale held on October 23, 2010, made possible by the beautiful jewelry donated by our wonderful library patrons. The event raised over $4,700 for library programs and was a lot of fun. As a result of the many requests and comments from those who attended, we plan to make this an annual event and will gladly accept jewelry donations all year long.

Shoppers finding treasures

One of our happy participants at the show was local resident and full-time professional Hollywood actress and crew member Renee "Philly" Fishman. Renee had a goal in mind. She went right to the watch bin to see if she could find any watches with second hands. One of her most consistent recurring jobs in the industry is when she acts as a medical professional/RN and gives medical advice for all different types of medical scenes in film and television. "It's a pet peeve of mine. I always have my watch with a second hand, but if additional nurses need to be added to the scene, and they are not in the medical field, chances are they don't have one with them." And then she is always screaming "...get them a watch with a second hand!" Thanks to the Friends Vintage Jewelry Sale, she won't have that anxiety any more. She bought 3 of them, but nothing could prepare her for the treat she found next to the bin of watches: RN cuff links! Besides having them for pride and history, she will actually wear them. Renee has RN uniforms dating back to the early 1900s and the white uniforms were made for cuff links. She wears them in period movies and period scenes. But Renee didn't stop there – she currently has a recurring role as a court stenographer on the CBS hit TV show "The Good Wife," and when she spotted a wonderful vintage pin with the initials J.M., she purchased it as a gift from the Friends to Julianna Margulies (the star of the show). Renee is grateful to all the volunteers who put so much time and love into this wonderful fundraiser. (see update on page 1)
