

Our Location

Upper Dublin Public Library is located in the Municipal Complex on Loch Alsh Avenue across from Upper Dublin High School. Entrance is on the west side of the building facing the 309 Expressway.

Our Mission

The mission of the Upper Dublin Public Library is to satisfy the informational, intellectual and cultural needs of all township residents by providing materials, programs and services that enrich people's lives. We accomplish this mission by ensuring:

- A welcoming environment
- Knowledgeable staff
- Fiscally responsible oversight

The Upper Dublin Public Library is a department of Upper Dublin Township and is supported by Township appropriation, State Aid to Public Libraries, the Friends of Upper Dublin Public Library and community donations. The Library is governed by a seven member appointed Board that serves under the Township Board of Commissioners.

As a member of MCLINC, the Montgomery County Library and Information Network Consortium, the Library shares a catalog, Internet access and technology expertise with 15 other libraries.

Friends of Upper Dublin Public Library

If you are interested in showing your support of the Upper Dublin Public Library, consider becoming a member of the Friends or making a contribution to this organization. The Friends is a non-profit organization founded to help support and promote activities and services of the Upper Dublin Public Library. It provides funding for programs and activities for all ages, the Summer Reading Club, collections, and for special purchases, such as furnishings.
